STAGE IS SET FOR BIG SHRINE DOIN'S HERE WEDNESDAY

Hundreds Will Gather Here
Tomorrow on Way to Sulphur.

The various local committees for the entertainment of the Shriners of India Temple, who will stop here tomorrow and tomorrow night on their way to Sulphur for the big ceremonial Thursday, report that most of their work is done and that they will be ready for the guests by the time they arrive.

The first thing on the program will be a monster parade which will form at the Frisco station when the special train jells in and march to the Harris Hotel and elsewhere about the business section of the city.

After that the registration booth at Hensler & Story's drug store will be the center of attraction, and it is there that all Shriners, their wives and sweethearts will be registered and given their tickets for the banquet to be held at the hotels and various churches throughout the city.

The Elks Club and the City Hall have been engaged for the evening for dancing, and at each place there will be an orchestra and all else that might be needed to make the entertainment complete. For those who do not dance there will be a special free show at the McSwain Theater, giving two performances and offering comfortable seating capacity for all who may wish to attend.

At 1 o'clock in the morning the special train will leave for Sulphur with a crowd estimated anywhere between twelve and fifteen hundred Shriners and wives and sweethearts of both. The special train will reach Sulphur about 4 o'clock Thursday morning and from that time on one uninterrupted program of amusement will last throughout the day and far into the night.

SHAWNEE COMING HERE IN FORCE

SHAWNEE, Oct. 26.—A number of Shawnee Shriners are planning to join the India Temple special from Oklahoma City which passes through here at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning on its way to Sulphur where a big ceremonial is to be staged Thursday.

The special will be in Shawnee about one hour and the Oklahoma City Shriners headed by their famous band will parade the downtown streets. It is urged that every Shawnee Shriners meet the special at the Rock Island station at 9 and show the visitors a good time during their sojourn here. The committee urges that everyone wear his fez and bring his wife to help entertain the visiting ladies. Autos are not needed as everyone will be expected to walk.

The high Potentate will make the trip by airship and is scheduled to put on a series of stunts over the city during the passing of the parade. He will scatter to the four winds hand bills said to contain matter boosting Wray of Ada for the ring. The Shawnee club is supporting Wray, but is quite willing that Jiggs Leftwich of Holdenville, who is also a candidate for this honor, shall have something and is convinced he will get it.

The special will also stop at Holdenville and feature a parade and concert and will then go on to Ada where a concert and dance will be given in the evening. The special will arrive in Sulphur early Thursday morning and the ceremonial will occupy the entire day there. Over five hundred novices will walk the burning sands.

The bark of the soapbark tree in Peru and Chile yields a lather with water and is used in cleansing fine fabrics.

SHRINERS ATTENTION!

All Shrine committees are urged to meet at the lobby of the Ada News office this evening at 7:30 o'clock. This is the last day, the last meeting. Come one, come all, without fail.

Let Us Rise and Build

When we see a citizen unable to own his home and living in a rented shack we are sorry for him. But when we see a man of wealth refusing to own his home and living in a rented shack we are disgusted with him.

Pontotoc County is worth seventeen million dollars according to the returns of the tax assessor, yet Pontotoc County is playing a miser's game and living in a rented shack. Able to live in a building that would be a credit to the county, she persists in quartering her official family in a building that is only a shack when compared with the quarters of many private businesses in the county.

The present rented county court house is no credit to the county. The fact that a county worth seventeen million dollars lives in a rented home is far more discreditable. No man worth that much would be considered a good citizen or even a decent citizen if he failed to own his home and persisted in living in a shack that was inadequate for his purpose.

Next Tuesday the people of Pontotoc County are to vote on the question of issuing bonds to build a court house. The people can vote the bonds or they can defeat them, just as they choose. The people can move up among the leading counties of the state or they can stop among the misers and paupers who refuse to wear decent clothes or live in decent houses although they have the money to pay their way.

VACATION PLANS FOR MR. HARDING

Very Many Popular Winter
Resorts Want To Be His Host.

By the Associated Press

MARION, Ohio, Oct. 26.—As election day draws near volunteer suggestions for a vacation trip for Senator Harding are coming into his headquarters here from a number of friends and admirers throughout the country.

A number of popular winter resorts have asked to be his host and several elaborate private homes have been placed at his disposal for whatever rest he may decide to take after the end of the campaign.

It was said today that all of these offers were held open for the present and that probably no choice of a vacation spot would be announced until after the election.

Both Senator and Mrs. Harding, it was explained, preferred to devote their energy now to the campaign, leaving their personal plans to be worked out later. It is expected that any trip he takes will give him at least two weeks of seclusion and rest during November.

Today the nominee took an easy stride in his campaign work, seeing few visitors and devoting most of his attention to miscellaneous tasks around his headquarters.

It was virtually his last breathing spell before the election, for he starts tomorrow on a campaign trip through Ohio that will last the remainder of the week.

M'SWINEY FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS ARE BEING MADE

By the Associated Press

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The members of the lord mayor's family were continuing today their vigil over the body. This noon the Irish Self Determination league announced it had received definite word that the inquest would be held at Brixton prison Wednesday. It is expected that the body will be placed in state at St. George's Cathedral, Southwark, before 6 p. m., Wednesday, and will remain there until Thursday morning. A body guard which will be relieved each three hours will be posted about the catafalque.

Solemn requiem high mass will be sung at St. George's Cathedral at 11 a. m., Thursday.

The funeral party will proceed from the Cathedral to Euston station at 2 p. m., contingents from all the Irish societies from London and representatives from Irish civil and commercial bodies marching in the procession.

ASK THAT POST BE DISMISSED FROM HIS PLACE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Formal requests for the dismissal from office of Louis Post, assistant secretary of labor, were submitted to President Wilson today by a committee of the American Legion.

"It is the contention against Mr. Post," said the announcement, "is that of the aliens ordered deported, 42 were actually deported, but at that point Mr. Post took charge of the matter and the deportations were stopped."

GOVERNOR COX CLOSES IN W. VA.

Says Churches and Labor
Are for League of Nations.

By the Associated Press

KENOV, W. Va., Oct. 26.—Governor Cox of Ohio closed his West Virginia campaign here today with another appeal for the league of nations and a statement that the churches, labor and women were together in the movement, which he said "was sweeping the country."

In this connection the democratic presidential candidate called attention to statements a year ago of former President Taft, which the governor said prophesied his present view of the situation.

"I desire to pay Judge Taft a tribute," said the governor. "He possesses a gift which I did not think was his. He has the gift of prophecy. Speaking about a year ago in West Virginia, he said that labor would endorse the league of nations because of its labor provisions; that the churches would endorse it because it is right, and then if the women were given a vote they would be for it because of their abhorrence of war; and in the last week it is perfectly apparent that Judge Taft correctly visualized the future."

Governor Cox declined today to amplify his statement of last night at Huntington as to his position regarding ratification of the treaty of Versailles and attendant reservations. Later today he was to make his 21st and final speech in Kentucky and speaks tonight at Cincinnati, Ohio.

ADA'S NEWEST ENTERPRISE TO OPEN MONDAY

The Security State Bank to Make Its Bow in Local Field.

The Security State Bank, Ada's newest enterprise, will open its doors for business at 9 o'clock on the morning of November 1. The carpenters and concrete workers have completed their work, and the bank's handsome home on Main street is now receiving the finishing touches at the hands of the painters and interior decorators. The furniture and fixtures have been installed throughout the institution, and when the clock announces the opening hour Monday morning the Security will be ready for you to give it the "once over."

The establishment is modernly equipped from front to back, with the fixtures so arranged as to afford the greatest convenience to both patrons and the force. The furniture and fixtures are of the finest mahogany and marble. The safety vault department where safety boxes are to be rented has been built so as to be doubly safe. The bank's vault proper is also impregnable.

Every foot of floor space has been utilized, and a storeroom has been built over the vault where supplies are to be kept. The directors' room will be in the rear of the building.

When you walk in Monday morning, the man sitting at the desk to your left will be H. W. Wells, president of the bank. Sitting at the next desk will be W. M. Pegg, the active vice-president. The man you will see standing at the marble counter to the right will be Leslie Prince, cashier. The young fellow with the glasses you will see in the cashier's cage is E. A. Poe, the assistant cashier.

The bank will start business with a force of six, including the cashier, bookkeeper, tellers and clerks. The bank's first board of directors is composed of the following: J. I. Laughlin, Orel Busby, H. W. Wells, W. M. Pegg, C. V. Gowing, W. E. Pitt, E. H. McKendree, I. McNair and H. L. Norman. All are residents of Ada except Mr. Norman.

$100,000 Capital.
The Security State Bank starts out with a paid in capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $10,000 which means that just that much more is poured into the financial arteries of Ada and Pontotoc county. Banks play a great part in the upbuilding of the country, because it takes money to accomplish big things, and they stand ready to furnish the money. The Security State proposes to get right into line with the other banks of the county in helping to finance local projects and bringing more prosperity to this section.

Mr. Poe, the assistant cashier, is very enthused with the prospects for the new bank. Though very young, he is an ardent student of the banking profession, and the ins and outs of the business are at his finger tips.

"Our books will be thrown open to depositors Monday morning," he told a News representative, "and we are all wondering just who will be our first depositor."

'Heap Too Much Jake' Gets Indians Into Police Court

"Heap too much Jake. Ugh!" That was the explanation offered to Mayor Kitchens in police court this morning by Esias Edwards and Johnson Porter, Indians, when arraigned on charges of being drunk on the streets of Ada.

"Where did you get the stuff?" the mayor asked.

Esias looked at Johnson, and Johnson looked at Esias.

"We get um from Tishomingo man," they declared.

The mayor scribbled a notation on a piece of paper.

"Eight six-bits," he said looking up.

Johnson Porter was held on a second charge of disorderly conduct. The mayor decided that he should contribute $24.75 to the coffers, but Johnson couldn't shake that much out of his jeans and was remanded to the cooler to think out the ways and means by which the obligation shall be fulfilled.

Mrs. W. Palmer Fuller, photographed at her desk in New York.

Mrs. W. She has just returned to the U. S. with her husband, Lieut. Fuller of San Francisco. He was Herbert Hoover's chief agent in Poland.

DEMOCRATS WILL CELEBRATE SATURDAY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 26.—To celebrate what promises to be the greatest victory for the democratic party in the history of Oklahoma, Cam Campbell, chairman of the state democratic campaign committee, is issuing a call to every county chairman and campaign manager to stage a big "Rally of Democracy" on Saturday night, October 30, in each county in the state.

"Many counties have already signified their intention of holding big celebrations Saturday night," Mr. Campbell declared. "We are urging each county campaign manager and county chairman to make it a statewide event."

"We believe that within a day or two plans will have been laid for big jubilee celebrations in practically every county in the state for Saturday night. Our speakers' bureau is prepared to furnish prominent orators wherever they are desired. The women of every county are showing an intense enthusiasm and will take a prominent part in the celebrations."

HOBO KIYUDLUS RARE SPECIES OF DOG, FOUND IN ADA, OKLA.

Watch dogs, bird dogs, hound dogs and pet doggies are not the only kind of dogs in Ada. Now don't fly at a hasty conclusion that we are going to call someone names. This is to be a high-minded, scientific diffusion and dispersion on a species of carnivorous mammal here in Ada which is different from the ordinary run of dog. We readily admit that there are some two-legged members of the family canis familiaris, or Canidae, here in Ada, but this elaboration is to be confined strictly to the quadruped carnivora.

The particular species of dog we have in mind is known to science as the hobo kiyudlus, or street dog. It is a mixture of mongrel, hound and yellow cur, and is known for its roaming inclination and love for the street.

We have a whole pack of hobo kiyudlus here in Ada, and their particular hangout is at the confluence of Broadway and Main streets, in the heart of our business district. They make their appearance each morning from all and unknown parts, and there they camp until the last flitter has honked its last honk for the night and beat it home. And each time a car comes along, this pack of carnivorous familiaris chase it, barking and yelping and playing bad, as they keep it up week after week, day after day, hour after hour.

LEAGUE SUPPORTERS TRAITORS--HARRELD

By News' Special Service.
TULSA, Oct. 26.—Indignations, aroused in Tulsa county by J. W. Harreld, republican candidate for the United States senate, during his recent speech here when he declared, "the man who favors the league of nations is a disloyalist," continues unabated. This statement has just Harreld hundreds of votes and destroyed his chance utterly in Tulsa, city and county.

Prominent republicans favoring the league of nations have joined with democrats in denouncing the remarkable declaration of Harreld in questioning the advisability of supporting for the public office a man who can be guilty of such a statement, even anti-league republicans here have expressed surprise over the incident.

Efforts of local republican headquarters to explain away the now famous disloyalty charge have met with little success. Tulsa women favoring the league as a war preventative for all time especially insensated that their desire to end war should be termed "disloyalty."

LEAGUE HEAD SAYS ARTICLE 10 NOT IMPORTANT

Could Be Omitted Without
Impairing Covenant's Effectiveness.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 25.—Leon Bourgeois, president of the council of the league of nations, talking to American newspaper correspondents last night, said that Article X of the league is not considered by Europeans as a vital and essential element of the covenant. He said that he had been surprised that Article X had caused so much emotion in the United States. He stated that Article X could be eliminated without in any way modifying the effectiveness of the league of nations.

"Article X," he said, "is scarcely more than a moral background to the covenant. It is not considered so important by Europeans as by Americans."

"There really is no sanction or penalty in this article. All penalties provided for in the covenant in order to make the league of nations effective are in other articles."

Noted Educator Praises East Central Normal

Dr. Charles Evans of Oklahoma City one of the leading educators of Oklahoma and a former president of Central Normal at Edmond was in Ada today looking after some business matters having to do with East Central. He spent the morning at the normal and when seen by a News reporter expressed the most pleasant surprise at the remarkable progress the local normal is now making.

"It is like an entirely new institution," said Dr. Evans. "I have never seen an educational institution that has progressed so far in such a short time. The change has been one of the marvels of education in Oklahoma. No doubt a large part of the splendid progress made is due to the activities of President Linscheid, who beyond any question is one of the strongest men at the head of a school anywhere in the southwest."

MANY EX-CHIEFS ON THE SHELF

Muskogee Has Had Five in Six Years—They Come and Go Fast.

MUSKOGEE—Muskogee—the city of ex-chiefs of police. Along with its other accomplishments Muskogee is boasting this new title, and is fast adding to the list.

When R. L. McAfee, following a dispute with R. P. Harrison, city manager, stepped down and out so far as the office of chief of police of Muskogee is concerned and was replaced by E. A. Maloney, he joined the "vast throng of those who have gone before."

Probably no other city in the country in such a short period of years has had so many chiefs of police and so far as the records can be found no other city has so many former chiefs living in it or calling it their home.

Five in Six Years.

Some of the chiefs retired gracefully, others went out of office in the midst of political upheavals, a few left to accept better positions and all of them still call Muskogee their home and are working for the best interests of the city.

During the past six years five chiefs of police have held sway in the old brick building at the corner of Third street and Court, commonly known as the police station and federal jail.

Art Harris, now in the transfer and storage business; B. G. Hughes, now in the real estate business; Joe Depew, in the oil business, and Clark Compton, oil man, and R. L. Afee are the ex-chiefs of the past six years.

Term is Short.

"Uncle Bud" Ledbetter, officer who captured single-handed Al Jennings and the famous outlaw gang, was chief before this period. He is now in the oil business. "Uncle Bill" Herring, first city marshal and chief of police of Muskogee, is a deputy United States marshal. Charlie Kinsey is in the horse and mule business and Harry Blake now with Cosden Oil company, Tulsa.

The average official life of a chief of police in Muskogee is one year, though now and then a chief has served longer than that. Joe Depew held forth longer and was acknowledged to be one of the best chiefs the city has had.

Other chiefs have served slightly longer than a year and some less, bringing the average to about 12 months. McAfee, going into office in the midst of the street car strike and industrial upheaval of Muskogee the summer of 1919, lasted a little longer than a year and was then forced to resign because of his "scrap" with the city manager.

It is generally admitted that the chief of police of Muskogee has a "hard row" to plow.

Attention Boy Scouts

This coming Wednesday Ada will have many visitors. They will arrive about two o'clock. Boy Scouts hold themselves ready to do any Shriners a good turn. Ask President Braselton, Chas. A. Zorn or Rev. C. C. Morris when you see them, if there is anything which a scout could do to render any visiting Shriners stay in Ada more pleasant. Be prepared to do any errand for the Pontotoc County Shrine Club. Owing to absolute necessity, the scout executive will be compelled to be out of Ada during the Shriners stay in Ada, but with such fine scout masters and about seventy husky and accommodating Boy Scouts, he knows that the Boy Scouts of Ada will do what they can to do any good turns that they can render to the visiting Shriners.

BRITISH MINERS' WIVES PROTEST STRIKE IN VAIN

Miners' wives, bearing banners, going to protest meeting at Hyde Park, England, and a group of miners, typical of those now on strike.

Knowing the cost and where the blow would hit hardest, the wives of the 1,000,000 British miners made every effort to prevent the strike which has practically halted coal production in the British Isles. Their efforts failed, however. Thousands of the wives attended a protest meeting in Hyde Park just before the strike was finally called by the leaders.

CHILDREN OF RICH IMPROPERLY FED PROBE DISCLOSES

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—Malnutrition—improper feeding—of school children is very prevalent in Oklahoma, not only among the poor but among the rich families as well, according to the annual report of Jules Schevitz, general secretary of the Oklahoma Public Health association.

A recent government report places Oklahoma at the bottom of a list of states which watch weights of school children. Accordingly, the Oklahoma Public Health association is urging the placing of scales in every school building. By watching children's weights the teacher will be able to determine whether they are receiving the proper nourishment.

This is only one of many activities of the Oklahoma Public Health association, which is financed largely by the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas seals. These seals will be sold in Oklahoma this year from December 1 to 15.

As a means of teaching health methods direct to children, the association has launched what it calls "The Modern Health Crusade."

"The Modern Health Crusade," to use the words of Mr. Schevitz's report, "has been found a practical method of interesting the child in his own health. By teaching him habits of right living in a manner thoroughly enjoyable to him, some important lessons of life are deeply impressed upon him. The daily filling out of health chores with the elements of play and competition injected has a profound influence on the child and frequently his parents."

24,000 VOTERS HAVE QUALIFIED IN TULSA

TULSA, Oct. 26.—Vernon Seaman, county registrar, estimated that 9,000 new voters has registered in Tulsa and 3,000 in the county from Oct. 13 to Oct. 22, at 7 o'clock when the books closed last night.

Complete figures were not available early today because the county registrar had not received all the books from the various precincts in the county.

"My prediction is that there will be 24,000 qualified voters in Tulsa county this year," said Mr. Seaman, the normal vote having been considerably increased by the heavy registration of women.

The organs of digestion, assimilation and elimination—the stomach, liver and bowels—are closely allied, and the proper action of any of these organs is largely dependent upon the correct functioning of all the others. It acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys, improves digestion and assimilation, overcomes biliousness, corrects constipation and quickly relieves sick headache.

EARLY PLANTED WHEAT IN OKLAHOMA SHOWS GROWTH

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—Early sown wheat has made very good progress during the last week, and especially since the rains, according to the weekly crop resume of the weather bureau of the federal department of agriculture. Harvesting corn, grain sorghums, broom corn and other minor crops has been general, with all yielding better than the average. Cotton made good progress but the top crop is maturing slowly. Picking has been interrupted over most of the southern half of the state by the rains of last week. Scarcity of labor has also interfered seriously with picking. The yield per acre, and quality of the lint, however, is very good.

THE TOWN GOSSIP

Ada, Okla., Oct. 25.
Editor Town Gossip. I noticed an article on this same subject in your paper a couple of months ago, but I can't refrain from bringing up the subject again. There are two or three clerks in Washington who, whenever I walk into their stores, accost me with the question: "Something I can do for you?" It gets my goat every time I hear it. They ought to know that nobody would go into their stores unless there was something they could do for them. I thought maybe you could say something about it.—C. L. M.

DEAR C. L. M.
A NUMBER of years ago.
I USED to eat.
AT A restaurant.
AND A certain waiter.
USED TO serve me daily.
AND HE'D come up and say.
"DID YOU wish something.
"TO EAT?"
AND HE ought to have known.
THAT I wouldn't sit down.
AT A table.
UNLESS I wanted something.
TO EAT.
AND I'VE seen folks.
WALK INTO shoe stores.
WITH A lot of shoes.
DISPLAYED IN the windows.
AND HAVE heard them ask.
"DO YOU sell shoes here?"
AND THE other day.
I HAPPENED to be.
DOWN AT the station.
WAITING FOR a friend.
TO COME in from Stonewall.
AND A woman walked up.
TO THE ticket window.

AND ASKED the agent:
"CAN I buy a ticket here?"
AND THEN again.
I'VE SEEN the fellow.
WHO WOULD ask.
WHEN HE saw a funeral:
"IS SOMEBODY dead?"
AND YOU'VE probably.
MET THE guy.
WHO SEES you on the street.
AFTER YOU'VE been away.
FOR A week or two.
AND GREETs you.
WITH THE question:
"SO YOU'RE back again, eh?"
AND I'M just citing.
THESE FEW cases.
AS AN example.
OF THE prevailing habit.
OF ASKING foolish questions.
AND I don't know.
HOW YOU'RE going.
TO BREAK it up.
AND TO tell the truth.
I DON'T much care.
BECAUSE I guess.
I ASK them myself.
I THANK you.

Because Oklahoma is excelled by no other commonwealth in intelligent and unwavering loyalty to the United States government, to American laws and to American institutions.

Because Oklahoma believes in placing in positions of high responsibility men and women of high character, proven ability and known prudence.

Because Oklahoma prefers a candidate who in the primary election polled 106,000 votes out of a total of 186,000 to a man whose candidacy for the United States senatorship in the opposition party attracted only 17,000 votes out of a total of 69,000.

Because Oklahoma has faith that a man who serves her diligently, faithfully and with loyal patience for twelve years in the house of representatives may be trusted to serve her with equal satisfaction for six years in the United States senate.

Because Oklahoma takes pride in her sons and daughters who reflect credit upon her in the eyes of the country and of the world.

Because Oklahoma believes in putting morality into government.

Because Oklahoma believes that the patriotic aspirations gained from the war should not wane and that political machinery should not be erected which would stealthily divert the earnings of the masses from the pockets of the people into the bursting coffers of a few individuals thereby building up a few great families and a few enormous fortunes.

Because Oklahoma, after painful experience, believes that, though equality before the law and equality of fair industrial opportunity should be vouchsafed to all its people, yet the white race and red race, on the one hand and the black race on the other hand, should develop separately in all social ways.

Because Oklahoma believes that the red flag should not be substituted for the Stars and Stripes, and that the man professing to be an American, representing a political party pledged to maintain Americanism, who, by his vote, courts the favor of any un-American element in order to hold public office degrades his party, his state and his country.

Because Oklahoma approves the income tax law, the federal reserve banking law, the farm loan act, the

Because Oklahoma respects the constitution of the United States, the laws of the various states, the president of the United States and all others rightfully in authority.

Because Oklahoma stands for peace and the new order and is opposed to war and the old order.

Because Oklahoma knows that the great war in Europe cost every man, woman and child in Oklahoma the sum of $750 each, to be paid for indirectly, in time, by each one of them, and is resolved to do everything possible to avert the repetition of that catastrophe.

DEAR OLD PETE:

Winston-Salem, N. C.
Friday p. m.

Just wound up the one swellest day of my life! Since early this morning, when I got an invitation to visit R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories, I've been in the midst of millions of Camel cigarettes.

Man—the happiest idea you or I ever had as to the size of this Reynolds enterprise, or the number of Camels manufactured daily, is simply piker-stuff! Wipe off the slate and start fresh! Why—Pete, it seemed to me like a couple of those cigarette-making machines could keep half the nation smoking Camels steadily—BUT—honest to goodness, there are hundreds of these machines batting out Camels at the rate of 27,000 an hour—EACH!

Pete, you wouldn't have to consult a guide book to know you were in the Camel factories! The atmosphere is charged with that wonderful aroma you get when you open up a deck of Camels! And, you know, old elephant—you've had a trunk full!

As the Camels dropped into the containers I figured the delight each one would supply! And, how Camels mellow, mild body would hit the right spot and how Camels refreshing flavor would cheer up some smoker's jaded appetite! And, each Camel free from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor! And—

Pete—I'll have to lay off and light another Camel! Write you some more soon.

Yours joyously

East Central To Play Central Normal Saturday at Edmond

East Central State normal's eleven will journey to Edmond Saturday to meet the Central normal team of that place in what promises to be the fastest football game of the season. Both teams are in excellent trim. East Central never was better, according to Coach Clary, and the champion Central team will have to look to its laurels.

"Our line is solid from end to end," Clary said yesterday, "and we are going after scalps in that game Saturday."

Clary is anxious to have a crowd from here accompany the team. If a sufficient number will go, he will engage a special coach for the Ada folks.

IL TROVATORE

Next Monday night the city of Ada is to be hostess to a grand opera company. The San Carlo people are to make our city and give us our opportunity to entertain eighty five artists, all of whom are known to be a credit to the stage. Incidentally this performance is the initial appearance of grand opera in Ada.

Because Ada is for the first time putting on grand opera a special effort will be made by the most public spirited of our citizens to give the visitors a full house and a hearty reception. None of us want our city to acquire the reputation of being unable to carry through anything we undertake, particularly if the project has a distinct educational and cultural value. But aside from considerations of civic pride, there is a better reason for hearing the San Carlo company for it is to present to the people of Ada the grandest opera ever penned.

Il Trovatore is the climax of operatic music. When Verdi composed his immortal drama and set it to the most majestic of all melodies he reached the extreme height of musical composition. True are the words of Bulwer-Lytton in Aux Italiens:

"Of all the operas Verdi wrote,
My favorite is Il Trovatore,
And Maro can sooth with his tenor note,
A soul in Purgatory."

From the opening strains of the opera wherein Ferrando expresses a deathless enmity for Azucena to the closing scene where the flames of Manrico's pyre light the grim dreariness of the prison walls, the opera swells with a majesty of pathetic grandeur that has never been surpassed. The world knows by heart "El Miserere," "The Jolly Blacksmiths," and "Home to Our Mountains." But throughout the entire opera appears the mark of the master mind that gave Il Trovatore to the world.

The most popular portion of the opera is no doubt the "Miserere." It is narrated that this wonderful production came from Verdi's mind at a time when to him the world was at its darkest. Fire had destroyed his wife and babies and for many months his reason hung in an uncertain balance. One day he wandered to the organ at the castle he was visiting and sitting down at the instrument began in a listless way to improvise. His improvisation was "El Miserere." Thus the pathetic tragedy of the master composer's life gave birth to the sweetest melody that ever came from the brain of man.

You may never have heard a grand opera. If you hear Il Trovatore it will scarcely be necessary to hear another. You will have heard the greatest of all the operas and one you will never forget.

Three speeches were made in the United States senate in one week last autumn. All of them were against our entering the league of nations. Senator Reed said that if the league is formed, the black races will dominate the league, and consequently dominate the world. Senator Sherman said that under the league covenant the Catholics will dominate the world. Senator Borah said that under the league Great Britain, which is one of the greatest protestant empires ever organized, will undoubtedly dominate the world. The argument of Senator Reed has turned some people against the covenant. The argument of Senator Sherman has turned still more against the covenant. But the argument of Senator Borah has turned most of all against the covenant. The three arguments are so contradictory as to be ridiculous, but here in Ada we have a republican leader who believes all three.

At a cost of several thousand dollars the republican national committee is having run in nearly every newspaper of the country a half-page advertisement stating that a republican congress saved the people more than two billion dollars by cutting the departmental estimates. But that advertisement fails to mention that only a year before, a democratic congress cut departmental estimates fourteen and a half billion dollars. It also fails to mention that only two years out of the last thirty has congress failed to cut departmental estimates. It bases its appeal for republican victory on the fact that congress did what ever congress save two has done for thirty years, and fails to mention that congress made a reduction only one sixth as great as was made by the democratic congress preceding it.

The republicans claim that the league of nations is the only real issue of the campaign. Yet their national campaign book does not contain a single line of the league covenant, and if their campaign speakers get a copy of the covenant, they have to get one from the democratic campaign committees.

The republican national campaign book does not contain a word of commendation for the boys who fought for the republic or for those who died for the republic. It does contain hundreds of pages of criticism of the way in which the war was won.

Divorce Petition Alleges Cruelty and Non-Support

Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Mrs. Anna Lee Morgan. In her petition she accuses her husband, Maurice G. Morgan, of cruelty and neglect.

The parties were married at Sulphur December 25, 1915. At the time of marriage the plaintiff was possessed of some property as an enrolled citizen of the five civilized tribes, but upon reaching her majority she was induced by her husband to sell or encumber her property, and she alleges that he has wasted or lost the proceeds and now fails to support her and her two children. She asks for divorce, custody of her children, $40 a month alimony, and $35 attorney's fees. She is represented by Wimbish & Duncan as attorneys.

WOMAN WINS SUIT FOR RECOVERY OF DIVIDEND

Miss Minnie McCain was awarded judgement for $166.67 and costs by a jury in county court yesterday against P. W. McKay and the Guaranty State Bank. The bank in turn was awarded judgement against McKay for its portion of the judgement granted Miss McCain placing the entire responsibility upon McKay.

Miss McCain sued for the recovery of money due her from a stock dividend declared by the Guaranty State Bank at the time McKay was president of that institution. She alleged that when the dividend was declared, McKay appropriated the stock due her from the dividend amounting to $133.33, and that McKay later sold the stock for $166.67.

McKay, in his answer, declared that Miss McCain had agreed to help him cover a deficiency in the bank at that time caused by a lot of unsecured loans on worthless paper; that Miss McCain had told him she did not want any more stock from stock dividends, and that he could use such stock to help cover the deficiency. McKay further declared that he had to put $12,000 of his own money to cover that deficiency.

McKay has since disposed of his holdings in the bank, and the bank denied responsibility for the transaction, asking the court to grant a judgement in turn against McKay for any judgment which the court might return against the bank as its share of what may be due the plaintiff.

Miss McCain at one time was cashier of the Guaranty State Bank and owned $500 of its stock.

with Ben Schienberg, the News quoted him as saying that the cost for paving the streets of Ada in many instances would be hardly

The writer misunderstood Mr.
Schienberg, who only said that the figures were mentioned in the con-

Mr. Schienberg.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK, Oct. 26. — School teachers will examine every pupil in New York November 9 to determine their physical fitness. The department of health set aside the day to stimulate interest of the teachers in their work, expecting them to more quickly detect physical defects and report them promptly to the school physician.

For 23 years a department of health doctor or nurse has visited each public and parochial school in New York daily. The teachers report to them any child exhibiting signs of illness. Nurses examine all pupils monthly for contagious eye and skin diseases and pronounced physical shortcomings. Those having symptoms of contagious diseases are immediately sent home.

In this way contagious diseases have been held under control here. This was shown in the influenza epidemics which were checked in the schools so forcibly that attendance was proportionately as great as during the same period in other years and the sickness and death rate was lower in the five to fifteen-year-old group than for any other period of life.

The health department expects to make vigorous search for unhealthy pupils in the future. Most of the men rejected for war service, it has been noted, had defects which could easily have been prevented or corrected during childhood.

Winners Win in Membership Drive By the Ada Elks

The Winners won in the big Elks membership drive which came to a close last night. After checking up it was found that the Winners, captained by Hugh Taylor, had 67 applications, while the Victors (or losers, rather) had but 53. Joe Allen was captain of the Victors. Joe and his team, by virtue of their defeat, are elected to the duty of serving a banquet to the whole lodge on November 23. All Elks are taking a keen interest in the banquet, and are looking forward with pleasant anticipation to the promised feast.

The Elks' regular party night will be Thursday night. A Hal-lowe'en party and dance will be given. Announcement will be made later as to whether or not it is to be a masquerade dance.

Last night was Roll Call night throughout the land of Elkdom. It was found that we have 128 members in good standing. With the new members coming in, the roll will be almost doubled.

The membership drive just ended is a record for Ada lodge. The closest to the number secured in the past was 45.

TOURISTS SHOWN PILGRIM LEADER'S PLACE OF BURIAL

LEYDEN, Holland.—American tourists who come here are frequently shown by the guides in St. Peter's church, where the Pilgrim Fathers worshiped before going to America, a stone, under which, the guides say, lies the body of Pastor John Robinson, the pilgrim's leader.

The correspondent the other day took one of the guides aside and expressed doubts about it, whereupon the guide opened his heart and said:

"As a matter of fact, sir, we do not really know ourselves. We had all the stones up some years ago and we found a number of skeletons, but it was impossible to identify them. We could not even see whether they had been men or women.

"But," he added naively, "you have to say something to your visitors. Now, have you not, sir?"

The Jews dated the beginning of the sacred year in March.

FANCY CHICKENS REPLACE DOGS AS STYLISH PETS; ACTRESS STARTS FAD

Miss Louise Glaum and her imported Minorca chicken.

The bluest blooded poultry with the most brilliant plumage may supplant the pedigree poodle, monkey, parrot, baby lion or bear which have so long held sway as the fashionable pets for milady. Miss Louise Glaum, the well known movie actress, started the fad at Petaluma, California, and it has already been eagerly taken up. She is shown here with a handsome black Minorca chicken which was sent to her by a French costumer. Miss Glaum leads her chicken with a green silk ribbon attached to a collar about its neck on which the owner's name is embroidered. Rhode Island Heds and White Leghorns are also popular as pets.

CHOLERA RAGING IN WEST CHINA

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—As a result of the frequent movements of Chinese troops in Szechuan province, West China, cholera has been spread more extensively recently than in the last 20 years. This is the opinion of Prof. Daniel S. Rye, of West China Union University, expressed in a letter to Rev. W. R. Taylor, a representative of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society in China, now on furlough here.

The disease has caused great ravages in Tungehwan, Chungking and Chengtu, as well as many of the smaller villages. Americans and Europeans are virtually immune. Professor Rye said, due largely to the unusual precautions observed by them in the preparation of food and in the matter of hygiene and diet.

The first graduates of the university medical school, who recently received their diplomas, are serving a young man who practiced medicine in a rural district became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce who afterward moved to Buffalo, N. Y. He made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and he put up what he called his "Favorite Prescription," and placed it with the druggists in every state in the Union. For fifty years Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has sold more largely throughout the United States than any other medicine of like character. It's the testimony of thousands of women that it has benefited or entirely eradicated such distressing ailments as women are prone to. It is now sold by druggists in tablet form as well as liquid.

HOUSTON, TEXAS.—"Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an excellent medicine. I have taken it for feminine troubles and when run-down, weak and nervous, and it was very quick in building me up and relieving me of my trouble. I always felt better."—Mrs. H. E. WILLIAMS, 2424 Freeman Street.

FATHER HELD FOR KIDNAPPING HIS SON

TULSA, Oct. 26.—Unable to arrange bond in the sum of $4,000 to insure his appearance in the district court, James Clifford Emery of Eastland, Texas, yesterday afternoon was remanded to the county jail to await trial for kidnapping his own child. He was arraigned before Justice H. J. Gray.

Emery was captured at Wilson, Okla., near Ardmore, but deputies from the sheriff's office after he had entered the home of Mrs. W. C. Sanders, 2744 E. Fourth street, grabbed his 2½-year-old son and ran to an automobile that had been parked in front of the house.

The mother followed, demanding her child, and climbed on the running board when the car started. After riding a block Mrs. Emery was knocked to the pavement, sustaining slight bruises. The child was brought to Tulsa with the father and returned to its mother.

It was said at the sheriff's office today that Mrs. Emery came here a month ago and had been visiting at the home of Mrs. Sanders, her sister. On several occasions, it is claimed, Emery had appeared at the house attempting to gain custody of the child.

Mrs. Emery obtained a divorce from her husband in Texas last March at which time she was awarded absolute custody of the child, officers say they were told.

RETAIL PRICES NOT KEEPING UP WITH WHOLESALE DROP

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The decline in the retail price of foodstuffs during September was placed at 2 percent by the department of Labor's bureau of labor statistics in its monthly report today on food costs.

Some foodstuffs, notably potatoes and sugar, sustained a marked decrease in price, while others, including such commodities as eggs, pork chops and oranges, underwent price increases ranging from 8 per

"Who Will Buy My Dates?"

You have heard of the Oriental Bazaar. Perhaps you have seen it. Everybody in the city or village with anything to sell takes his wares to the bazaar and cries for buyers. The gardener with his vegetables, the herder with his goats, the old woman with a basket of fowls, the rug dealer, the fruit grower with dates and figs. There is much picturesque-ness along with clamor, confusion, dirt and endless wastage of time.

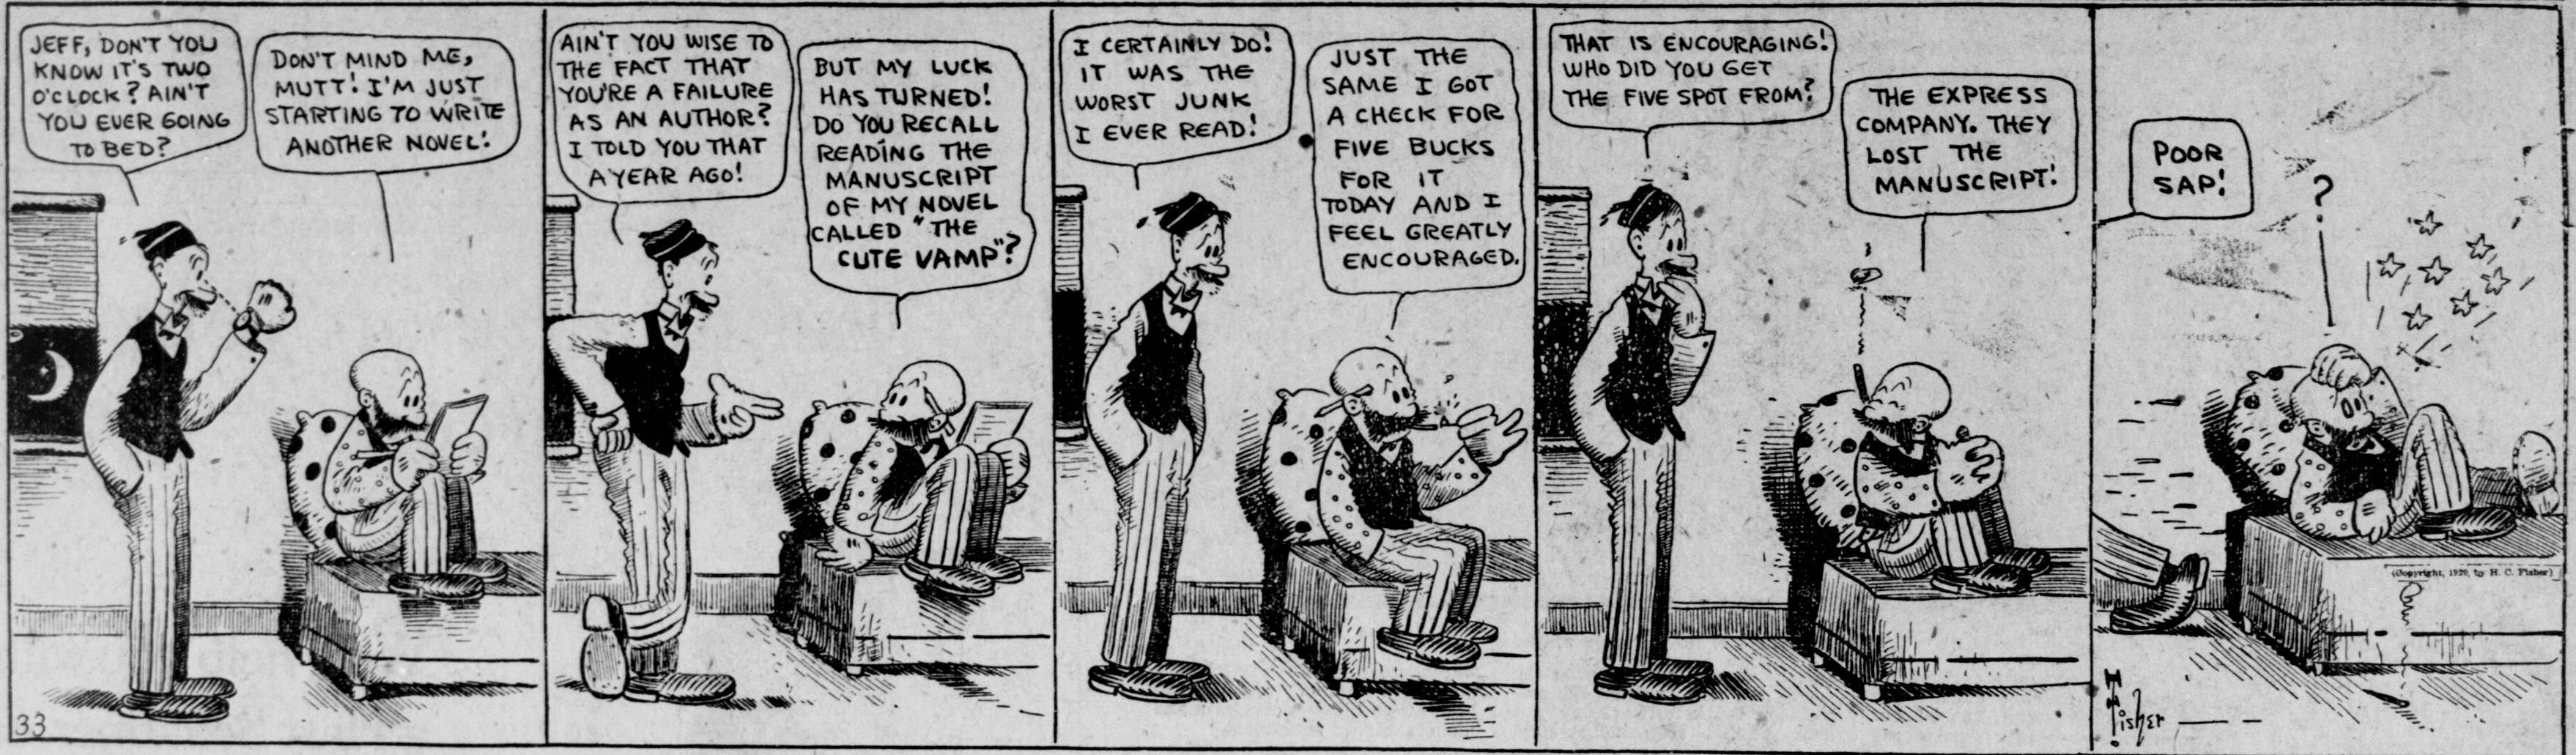

In our American cities, the advertisements in the daily newspaper take the place of the ancient bazaar. Whoever has something to sell can tell you of his good and where to find them directly. Whatever you want to buy, you can read of it in advertisements, and go straight to the place where it may be seen. Clear and truthful advertising make it safe to order by telephone and avoid leaving your home at all.

Make it a practice to read the advertisements. They are the great bazaar of modern civilization. They are your source of information by which wise buying is accomplished.

AMERICAN LEGION DECLARES ITSELF ON UNION LABOR

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 25.—The official attitude of the American Legion toward organized labor is given in a bulletin issued from national headquarters in this city. This plank, which was adopted at the recent national convention, is taken from a statement issued by former National Commander Franklin D'Olier, and is as follows:

"The attitude of the Legion toward organized labor is the same as its attitude toward all groups of American citizens who are interested in a square deal for all in the maintenance of law and order and the protection of the institutions handed down to us by our forefathers. In any controversy between capital and labor the interest of the American Legion is confined to that of the maintenance of law and order, and without taking part on either side, in case a situation should arise where life and property are endangered, it is the duty of the members of the Legion to perform their full duty as citizens, according to their own conscience and understanding. In such a contingency it is the Legion man's duty to assist in the maintenance of law and order by acting as an individual and offering his services to the duly constituted authorities for the maintenance of law and order. There is nothing to prevent the individual member of the Legion, as an individual, from taking either side in such a controversy, but the Legion, as an organization, will not do so."

This statement was adopted by the convention delegates as best expressing the Legion's official attitude in labor difficulties.

TURLEY OF MADILL IS IN RACE TO WIN

MADILL, Oct. 26.—For the second time inside of two years, a Madill man has entered the lists as a candidate for the Shrine ring, as that honor is bestowed upon the newly made members who have safely completed the journey across the burning sands of Arabia and are, at last, permitted to sit beneath the cooling shades of the palms and sip the nectar which flows from the springs of the solitary oasis.

Without thought of defeat—in fact with an ingrown determination to succeed, to win the victory and wear the honor ring, Charles Turley has shed his hat into the ring and come out as an avowed and determined candidate. In an open letter which he is addressing to all members of the craft, Mr. Turley, Brother Turley, all Madill Shriners hope to soon call him, announces, first that his full name is Charles L. (Newt) Turley, second that his campaign is being managed by all (each and everyone of them) members of the Marshall County Shrine club; third, that his references are unimpeachable, as a man fitted in every particular to wear this honorable badge of one whose feet have been blistered from contact with the burning surface of the desert; fourth, that he has long traveled in the darkness which enshrouds those who care not for enlightenment, but that for a few weeks he has basked in the effulgent rays of a most brilliant light; fifth, that he intends to remain in the light for the remainder of his natural life; sixth, that he fears no evil—man, woman or devil, and therefore asks for all that is coming to him.

Loaded with a determination to win, Mr. Turley, backed by a strong delegation of boosters and shout leaders, will journey to Sulphur on October 28, and fully expects to return with the ring, provided grit and determination amount to anything in the winning line.

BERLIN MUNITIONS PLANT NOW PRODUCES P.L.A.C.E. MACHINERY

The great munition plants in Germany which, under the Hohenzollern reign, turned out munitions to make possible the Kaiser's dream of conquering the world, are now turning out machinery to help Germany get back on its feet industrially.

GO TO THEATRE

“Wolves of the Street,” the six-reel feature showing at the Liberty today, deals with a situation vital to every man and woman in the country. Aside from its tense dramatic value it carries a story that will immediately interest leaders of thought everywhere.

Edmund F. Cobb, who takes the leading part, gives a splendid performance, and his work in the dual role of wealthy young capitalist and desperate criminal is one of the hits of the piece.

At the McSwain.

The U. S. A. Girls, the musical comedy show which opened at this popular theater yesterday, made a hit with all who saw it, the harmony quartet consisting of Joseph Wainscott, Russell Clutterbuck, Eugene Bruce and Town Lewis was one of the most entertaining features of the show. Jimmie Allard, the rube comedian, is exceptionally clever. The chorus of six is one of the best gowned, best looking, best dancing the theater has had.

All in all its a little above the average tab show. The picture program a Paramount feature with Douglas McLean and Doris May playing the leads. You probably remember them in “23½ Hours Leave.” The name of the picture today is “Mary’s Ankle.” Its a Thomas H. Ince production adapted for the screen from the celebrated stage success. The story of a young doctor who needs money and announces his wedding to secure wedding presents. He picks out the name of a real girl and the ensuing complications make a five-reel picture that is one continuous laugh.

Scenes in the doctor’s office and the attempt of the young men to get something to eat and scenes aboard the boat bound for Honolulu are among the funniest one of the picture. You’ll like it and the picture playing orchestra always features the pictures. Coming Wednesday, Ethel Clayton in “Young Mrs. Winthrop.”

American Tomorrow.

John Grier, owner of the Verde ranch at Victorville, where Thomas N. Heffron made most of “Firebrand Trevison,” the Charles Alden Seltzer story starring Buck Jones, which is to open at the American Theater Wednesday, was rather contemptuous when he learned that a motion picture company of cow-punchers wanted to use his ranch. “I don’t think much of actors,” said he.

The first day the company was at work Mr. Grier thought he would play a joke on Buck. He suggested that Buck ride a restive colt for him. As a matter of fact, the colt was a bucking horse, which few men on the great ranch could ride. But Buck, who learned his horsemanship not only on cattle-ranches but in the United States cavalry, stayed on the animal without great distress.

“Pardner,” said the star, when he finished. “I knew that was a bucking horse the moment you mentioned my riding him. I played the same trick on tenderfoot myself when I was on ranches. And there are six more men with this outfit who can ride that horse. How many on your ranch can ride him?”

Mr. Grier shook hands.

American Today.

Tom Moore, starring in the Goldwyn picture, “Duds,” which comes to the American Theater today, is a soldier of fortune type. That is doubtless the reason he finds such keen delight in enacting the role of Captain Plunkett in the above-named production. Captain Plunkett is a man whose fighting blood has been thoroughly stirred by his war experience in France and who finds the prospect of civilian clothes and a job rather uninviting. Then comes the big adventure, the chance to match his wits and nerve and strength against clever opponents, and he jumps at the opportunity. “Do I like it?” Tom echoes. “Does an Irishman like a scrap?” And there is a mingled gleam and twinkle in his eye as he says it. “This is no milk and water story, but a yarn with action and red blood in it. Captain Plunkett is a man who gravitates toward excitement as a river runs down hill. When adventure and romance comes tapping at his door he’s always there to welcome them. There’s plenty of both in the world for the man who keeps an eye open and doesn’t sidestep.”
